International Subscription Fund

Of the 840 current subscribers to the Mennonite Quarterly Review 185 have addresses which are outside the United States and Canada. However, the editors of the REVIEW believe that persons in many Third World countries would be interested in subscribing but are unable to do so either because their income levels do not enable them to pay the subscription price or their government's exchange control regulations do not permit the purchase of American currency for this purpose. For this reason we are participating in the International Subscription Fund being organized by the Mennonite World Conference. Readers who are interested in contributing to this fund should send their checks to Mennonite World Conference, 528 E. Madison Street, Lombard, IL 60148, and should designate that their contributions are for the International Subscription Fund for the Mennonite Quarterly Review. Mennonite World Conference will issue a tax-deductible receipt to contributors to this fund.

ERRATUM

On page 182 line 8 of the July 1981 issue of the REVIEW the word "caught" was inserted to replace "thought." The sentence should read: "It was also thought that Schottstaedt might share with the gathering something of the faith and life of churches in Marxist society." The REVIEW apologizes for this mistake which occurred between final proofs and printed copy.
